

THE PROTECTION OF PERSONS FLEEING ARMED CONFLICT IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Phd Thesis

Özgenur Yiğit

I. Theoretical Background

A. Concept of Armed Conflicts

- International Armed Conflicts
- Non-International Armed Conflicts

B. Definition of Person Fleeing

Internally Displaced Persons

Persons Displaced Abroad

II. Applicable Law

- A. International Humanitarian Law
- B. International Human Rights
- C. International Refugee Law

III. Protection Instruments

- Refugee Status under 1951 Convention
- Secondary Protection
- Humanitarian Visa

Questions

- 1. What are the branches of law to be applied during armed conflicts?
- 2. What is the relationship between the branches of law to be applied during armed conflicts?
- 3. Who are the persons protected under international humanitarian law?
- 4. What are the legal instruments applicable to persons fleeing armed conflict? Do these instruments provide adequate protection?
- 5. Is it possible to be granted refugee status for those who are displaced abroad? In which cases are complementary protection and humanitarian visas available for these persons?

Problems

- Is there any need to open a chapter for International Criminal Law because of the violations against IDPs?
- Which term should I use between law of armed conflicts and international humanitarian law?

Thank you for your time.

Özgenur Yiğit